Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Roads to Peace: A Hand-Book to the Washington Conference The most fundamental business with which the Washington Conference will deal is the sickness of Europe and the route to recovery. The President and Mr. Hughes for reasons to which I will refer later shy away from this matter, but they cannot prevent its consideration and they have not dared to try. Indeed, by including land disarmament in the agenda, they invited the European delegates to propose for discussion both the political dissensions and the economic disabilities of Europe. The European governments know perfectly well that their expenditures on armaments are one of the chief barriers to economic recovery, but these expenditures are only the doctor's bills which their political maladies force them to pay. They will propose, consequently, to discuss the limitation of land armaments in relation to the national conflicts of which these armies are the instruments, and as this proposal will only repeat the proposal of the United States in relation to the discussion of naval armaments, the American delegation cannot refuse....
