Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The purpose of the author in this volume is to set forth the New Church, or Swedenborgian view of the nature and efficacy of prayer. The teaching is given in the form of sermons, and the texts are nearly all from Christ s Sermon on the Mount. The clauses of the Lord s Prayer are explained each one forming the subject of a separate discourse. We shall not attempt to point out the particulars in which the preacher is in agreement with the mind of the Old Church, nor those in which the New differs from the Old. With much that the author says we can heartily sympathize; and so far as he tries to restore a popular faith in prayer without destroying confidence in the practical efficacy of it, we commend his efforts. - The Churchman, Volume 47 [1883] * * * * * From the Introduction. The use of Prayer and the manner in which it operates to produce its effects is a subject which has awakened unusual interest in the Christian world in the last few years. As men become better acquainted with the substances and forces of the material world they see more clearly that all things proceed according to immutable laws. Storms, droughts, wars, famines, and pestilences, which it was formerly believed were sent upon men by an angry God to punish them for their sins, are now seen to be the effects of natural causes which are constant in their operation, and which in a great degree are under human control. Why, then, should we ask the Lord to interpose and prevent effects which His own forces acting according to His own...
