A First Time for Everything (Paperback)

By Chanelle B

Createspace, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Meet Sarai (Sa-rye) James, attorney at law; adored by her public and envied by her competition. She s a clear cut, straight-talking, no-nonsense type of woman. When she speaks, there is no misunderstanding her tone. She means it! She makes you think she has everything under control, but don t let that fool you. She s controlled by a past that haunts her and a future full of uncertainty. She decides to break away from a day full of clients, who call every five minutes for an update on their case. She strolls down the busy streets of Atlanta searching for peace of mind, but what she finds is a lot more than she bargained for. She soon realizes that she has bitten off more than she can chew, when she opens a conversation that would never close. Though Sarai is used to running things, she finds herself treading through unfamiliar territory, with no way out, but in. Join Sarai, as she s confronted by a series of events that will force her to discover who she really...
