Reviews

This publication will never be effortless to begin on studying but extremely entertaining to learn. It is probably the most incredible publication i have go through. I realized this ebook from my i and dad suggested this publication to learn.

A FAMILY FROM BARRA: AN ADOPTION STORY

Auckland University Press, Auckland, New Zealand, 1997. Soft Cover. Book Condition: New. First Edition. "Beryl Martin grew up as Pat Ridge, daughter of Nellie and George. George worked at the Municipal Milk Department; Nellie fostered children, to whom she was mostly cruel. Roaming Wellington as a child and schoolgirl, Pat started work at the Zig Zag factory at 14; she ran away from home at 21, never to see Nellie again. In 1985, the Adult Adoption Information Act was passed and Pat Hawthorne (now with a name bestowed by marriage) set off to find the family she learned about only in her 50s - the "family from Barra". Her natural mother had died only a few years before she met her two brothers, and discovered a family ready to claim her. Barra, the smallest island in the Hebrides." 202 pages with photo illus and geneology charts. Size: 8vo - over 7¾" - 9¾" tall.
