

Liverpool 87/88 Uncut

By Sport Media

Trinity Mirror Sport Media. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Liverpool 87/88 Uncut, Sport Media, John Barnes shaking his hips and striding past full-backs at pace. Peter Beardsley nimbly jinking his way though defences. John Aldridge, predator-like and clinical. Steve McMahon powering through midfield minefields. Alan Hansen elegant and composed at the back. Steve Nicol rampaging down the flanks. Bruce Grobbelaar at his eccentric best. Anfield packed to the rafters. Kenny Dalglish stood in the dug-out, poking his head out of an oversized coat. Kopites lined up, shoulder to shoulder. Lads brought up wearing adidas Samba, munching Wagon Wheels on the famous old terrace and watching football better than the Brazilians. The red machine in full effect. Exciting. Enthralling. Entertaining. Maybe the class of 1987/88 was the best of all time. 25 years on since that remarkable season was crowned with a 5-0 destruction of Brian Clough's Nottingham Forest in one of the finest all-round exhibitions ever witnessed in British football, this is the uncut account of Liverpool's glorious '87/88 championship winning campaign. Containing previously unseen colour photos of the season newly unearthed from the Liverpool ECHO archives, this special retro magazine also features an exclusive interview with manager Kenny...

READ ONLINE
[6.35 MB]

Reviews

Completely essential read publication. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. You wont truly feel monotony at at any moment of your time (that's what catalogs are for regarding should you question me).

-- Nels Runte IV

This book is really gripping and interesting. Of course, it is actually perform, still an interesting and amazing literature. You will not truly feel monotony at whenever you want of your time (that's what catalogues are for concerning when you request me).

-- Claud Schaden