And the people came and stood about his corpse. He treated the whole round world as his football, they said, indignantly, and he kicked it. The dead man opened one eye. But always toward the Goal, he said. There was a man once - a naturalist. And one day he found a lobster upon the sands of time. Society is a lobster; it crawls backward. How black it is! said the naturalist. And he put it in a little pan over the hot fire of his wit. It will turn red, he said. But it didn't. That was its shamelessness. There was a man once - a logician. He picked up a little clay ball upon the path of life. It is a perfect little globe, said his companions. But the logician saw that it was not mathematically round. And he took it in his hands and...
