I deem it proper, before entering upon a recital of the duties to which my attention has been particularly directed, to state at least the general condition of the work, when it was committed to my charge. 1. The Rail Road. Having for its termini Anderson Court House, in South Carolina, and Knoxville, in Tennessee, known as the Blue Ridge Rail Road, had been located, and a contract entered into with Messrs. Anson Bangs Co. to construct, finish, equip and furnish it. 2. The Graduation. The Contractors had sub-let the grading and culverts, or square drains, in South Carolina and Georgia; ground had been broken on every contract; some of the square drains had been completed, and some of the light work intervening between the heavy cuts and fills between Anderson and Walhalla had been reduced nearly to grade; but no portion of the graduation was in a state of preparation for the superstructure, nor had any materials been provided for the superstructure, either of iron, chairs, spikes, or cross-ties. 3. At the very commencement of the Road, and through Anderson, a deep cut, occupying the whole of the past season, with the best energies of the contractor exerted towards its completion, (which has just now been effected, ) was in an...
