CRAZYBABY AND THE DANCING BUTTERFLIES (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 254 x 203 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is a book about a little girl named Kahia, nick named Crazybaby, who saves the life of a beautiful talking butterfly named Supriya. Kahia tells the butterfly that the children at her school were good friends, but now they are fighting and won t play together. The butterfly has an idea that she thinks will get the children to play together again, but it will involve millions of butterflies. Supriya had the butterflies do a beautiful dance for Kahia earlier that day for saving her life. But she has to get permission from the Council of Wise Butterflies to let the butterflies dance in front of the school students. Supriya will have to take a long and dangerous journey to get permission from the council. On her journey she encounters a number of helpful and some very dangerous characters. This is a fast moving action packed short story, with page turning excitement. This book will teach children how to react and handle real life everyday problems they will encounter. This book also teaches children to appreciate the diversity between them and to work together to solve their problems. There are brightly colored illustrations throughout the book to help the child visualize the author s concept.
