Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Human Geography Peoples and Countries, Vol. 1 In these primary grades they frequently include well-organized projects from the study of the home, the farm, the community or store, etc. The readers contain stories of Indian and Eskimo life, other selections contain material relating to the products, occupations, industries, and climatic conditions of our own country and foreign lands. With this rich background of information and concrete experience the child is adequately prepared to begin the study of Peoples and Countries. The position taken by many that the fourth grade child is entirely without preparation for the study of geography, and that he must necessarily begin with his immediate surroundings cannot be successfully sustained. Globe and Maps. - A globe is essential in teaching the shape, the relative size and the movements of the earth, and its relation to the sun and moon. No school can afford to be without one. Other equipment should include large colored physical and political wall maps of the United States, the world and each of the continents. Wall outline maps of continents and the blank black roller map are very helpful. Current News. - Current newspapers and magazines are filled with live interesting geographic material related to local, national and foreign questions. Encourage the pupils to read these publications and make contributions to the class. Train them to read publications, to observe the geographic material and report to the class. A typical daily paper of the Middle West recently examined contained in one issue eight articles on the first page, three on the second, two on the third, and a half dozen more scattered through the rest of the paper,...
