Excerpt: . . . merited upon the merits of the cause in the district court, and proposing, by persisting in the appeal, to further experiment upon the merits of the cause in the supreme court of the state, it lb not open to defendant to also experiment in this court upon the merits of the same cause. Under the facts disclosed upon the record, therefore, it must be held that this court has not jurisdiction of this cause, but that the same continues in the courts of the state. The plea to the jurisdiction is therefore sustained. Bischoffsheim v. Brown and others. (Circuit Court, S. D. New York. December 23, 1886.) 1. Discovery--Production Of Documents--Rev. St. U. S. 8 724. Rev. St. U. S. 5 724, relative to the production of documents, does not apply to suits in equity. In equity such production, by one not summoned as a witness, can ordinarily be compelled only by appropriate allegations in bill or cross-bill, upon the answer to which allegations a motion for production is based, and upon such motion the materiality of the evidence sought for can be controverted. 2. Same--When Material. The only issue between plaintiff and defendants in a suit in equity was whether a trust fund, received by defendants under certain agreements made between plaintiff and some of the defendants and between plaintiff and a third party, was appropriated by them pursuant to the agreements. Held, that the production by plaintiff of books and documents...
