Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An International Police: To Guarantee the World's Peace From all sides comes the cry: Let us be active. What is the good of having a peace society unless it does something? Exactly. What is the good of having a fire brigade unless it puts out the fires? But what would you think of a fire brigade that would limit its activity to holding monthly meetings to listen to reports on the damage done by fire and to ask in astonishment why that damage was allowed to continue? Would you call such a fire brigade active? An active fire brigade is one which gets hold of a fire-engine and throws water on the fire. The fire of militarism which devours 2,000 million dollars of our good money every year is caused by a number of burning questions. You would think that the foremost aim of every active peace society would be to quench those burning questions. Yet those of you who are familiar with the peace movement will bear me out in the statement that...
